NOTES:

Application for the issue of a national visa and accompanying documents shall be submitted to the Lithuanian visa authority in a foreigner country or through an external service provider. If there is no Lithuanian visa authority or external service provider in the country where the applicant is legally resident, the application and documents may be submitted to any Lithuanian visa authority abroad or through any external service provider's visa application center. If foreigner is not a national of the State in which the documents are submitted for the purpose of obtaining a national visa, he must produce documents proving his legal status in that State. When an application for a national visa is found to have been found illegally in the State of the application, foreigner is terminated.

An application for the issue of a national visa and the accompanying documents may be submitted to the visa authority in Lithuania if foreigner is legally present in the territory of the Republic of Lithuania.

If fingerprints of a foreigner national applying for a national visa have been collected less than 59 months before the date of submission of the new national visa application, they shall be copied to the subsequent application. In this case, documents may be submitted by an authorized person on behalf of foreigner for the purpose of obtaining a national visa. He must submit a power of attorney approved by a notary or equivalent, or a power of attorney approved by a legal person. An authorized person on behalf of foreigner serving documents to a visa office in Lithuania must be legally resident in the territory of the Republic of Lithuania. If there is any suspicion of foreigner's destination, the authenticity of the documents submitted, the visa officer of the visa service may, in order to ascertain the credibility of foreigner, require foreigner to submit the documents personally and, in the event of reasonable doubt as to the identity of foreigner, to take fingerprints without applying the specified period.

The application and examination of a national visa application accompanied by the attached documents shall be governed mutatis mutandis by the provisions of Article 6 of the Visa Code (Regulation (EC) No 810/2009 of the European Parliament and of the Council 2009-07-13) as well as Chapters II and III. If the application for a national visa is submitted in a manner other than that provided for in the Visa Code, the request shall not be dealt with and shall be notified to the applicant.

If only copies of documents are submitted to the visa authority, their authenticity must be evidenced by the person or authority having the right to authenticate the copies of the documents.

Documents made in the Lithuanian language for the visa service in Lithuania are submitted together with the translator's certified translation into Lithuanian.

A visa officer, in justified cases (for example, in order to clarify the circumstances of foreigner's entry into the Schengen area; in case of reasonable doubt as to the authenticity of the documents submitted or the authenticity of their content; In order to determine whether there are grounds for refusing to issue a national visa under Article 19 of the Law on the Legal Status of Aliens, you may invite an applicant for a national visa to interview and / or request additional documents confirming the data contained in the national visa application and accompanying documents.

The decision to issue a national visa is made within 15 calendar days from the date of the request. This period may be extended by up to 45 calendar days.
